a) About us (NLUMeg) - A perfect blend of natural beauty and urbanization, Shillong is often referred to as the “Scotland of the East” with its lush green hills, cascading waterfalls, clear blue skies, and the serene lakes. Apart from being an ideal destination for nature lovers, the city is also home to the National Law University of Meghalaya. The campus is situated in the heart of the city and is brimming with life. The university’s programmes in different levels will promote interdisciplinary law studies with research at its core. The curriculum is designed around the principle of “study what you want” and will be delivered through a technology driven ecosystem. The University is committed to personalized education, catering to the needs of creative learners. It encourages bright minds to explore their innovative capacities and engage in hands-on learning through the University's educational ecosystem. Shillong provides a variety of recreational opportunities, including Cherry Blossom festivals, NH7 Weekenders, and an endless array of rock concerts, making it a hub for both education and entertainment. Whether you are a student looking for a transformative educational experience or a faculty member seeking to make a difference in the lives of young people, NLU Meg is the ideal destination for you.
